The "roots" of the monster are actually powerful tentacles that bring Oaktopus quickly through landscapes, and propeller it effectively through water. à € Designation of goods The Oaktopus looks like a brown tree with tentacles and a face, similar to Treebeard of The Lord of the Rings. He has two teeth on his upper jaw, swollen yellow eyes, red lips and a nose, and a blue tongue. It has a beak (a characteristic that the octopoes possess) at the corner of its mouth and a wooden beard. On his head they are two tufts of foliage (action like hair) that strongly lead a similarity to the pompom pumps. On the island of ShugaBush, a nest with green creatures similar to birds is located on its left "hair" tuft. When this monster is inactive, it remains in time meditating-ish eye-shifting such as toe jammer and masturbating its tentacles similar to root. SAMSION SONG AUDIO: Voice actor: Matthew J.
